For your information:

Any individual entering or leaving the EU and carrying cash/funds of a value of 10,000 Euros or more is required to declare that sum to the competent authorities.

Funds located in hand luggage, checked-in luggage and means of transport shall be deemed to be carried by an individual.

Funds are defined as:

- Cash
All notes and coins in circulation as legal tender, whether in Euros or another currency
- Transferable bearer securities including instruments of payment with a bearer clause, e.g. traveler's cheques, bearer cheques, bearer bonds, bonds of public corporations, debentures, bonds, bearer shares, bearer/profit sharing certificates, interest/renewal certificates
- Other transferable securities, either bearing a bearer clause, endorsed without restriction, made out to a fictitious recipient or in any other form effecting the transfer of legal entitlement upon handover including cheques, sola bills of exchange and money orders
- Incomplete securities which are signed without stating the name of the payee including cheques, sola bills of exchange and money orders

Anyone giving false or incomplete information will be committing an offence pursuant to Section 31 b of the Customs Administration Law, which can result in a fine of up to 1 million Euros.

Information pursuant to Section 4 Paragraph 3 of the Federal Data Protection Act:

The obligation to render a declaration derives from Article 3 of Regulation (EC) 1889/2005. The data is processed in automated procedures in compliance with the provisions of the data protection act.
